Remuneration report

Introduction from the Chair of the Remuneration. People and Culture Committee

On behalf of the Board, I am pleased to present Transurban's remuneration report for the year ended 30 June 2023.

EY23 has seen Transurban achieve strong the business from our daily operations to activities that create long-term value for our customers, communities and partners

Continued positive momentum in traffic, and EBITDA increasing by 26% and 29% prudent management of our balance sheet has kept financing costs stable despite the year. These results have allowed us to increase distributions to security holders by more than 40% compared to FY22, to 58 cents per security for the year.

While the year's financial results are of our business is intrinsically linked to the long-term value that we create for this holistic approach is reflected in the Group Performance Scorecard. This was Group performance for the purposes of determining the Short Term Incentive (STI) pool. The scorecard's financial and nonfinancial measures assess our performance in terms of Financials (Proportional EBITDA and Proportional Net Costl: Health, Safety and Environment (HSE); Customer and Delivery; and Sustainability, Reputation

Pleasingly, along with strong financial significant milestones in the non-financial areas. Some of these highlights included:

- · Opening the M4-M8 link in Sydney, the final element of the WestConnex project Partners (STP) consortium, ahead of
- Completion of tunnelling on the West Gate Tunnel Project in Melbourne
- Successful financial close of the M7-M12 Integration Project in Sydney Completing Australia's first trials of an

These and many of our other achievemen are highlighted throughout this Report Our workforce

Ongoing labour market pressures persisted in PY23 with high demand for specific skills technology.

Within this context, we have been working hard to understand and effectively respond to the expectations of both or current and future workforce, identifying key themes such as an increasing des work for organisations that are purpose led, sustainable and inclusive; which offer flexible workplace arrangements as well a career growth through meaningful work

We have refreshed the Group's Employe Value Proposition (EVP), adapted hiring strategies in response to changing marke in leadership capability, change resilience and a workplace that is engaging, inclusive and equitable for all.

Along with many organisations, we have sustainable flexible work patterns the preferences. Employee surveys have

CEO transition

In February 2023, Transurban announced that CEO Scott Charlton would be calendar year 2023.

In August 2023, the Board confirmed the appointment of Michelle Jabiko to the position of Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of Transurban, Michel will officially commence in the role on 19 October 2023.

During the year the Committee recommendations to the Board on, relation to the outgoing and incoming CEO

The orderly management of this transition helps to ensure that the business remains focused, continuing to apply a disciplined approach to delivering the Group's strategic agenda and value for all our stakeholder groups.

Pemuneration outcomes in FY23

The EV23 remuneration outcome are outlined below and, in the Board's opinion, fairly reflect individual and Group performance taking into consideration market conditions and security holder

Fixed remuneration

Fixed annual remuneration reviews were conducted, with adjustments being made to the FY23 fixed remuneration of one Executive KMP, effective 1 July 2022. This was made in recognition of the role scope, accountability, experience and performance of the individual, and to remain competitive against the ASX30 market benchmark.

Details can be found in the Executive KMP remuneration table on page 111.

Short Term Incentive (STI)

EV23 performance

The introduction of the Group Performance Scorecard this year provided the Board with important additional context in assessing overall Group performance for STI purposes measures. Further details are provided on

STI financial measures

Proportional EBITDA In terms of financial results, Proportional EBITDA was $2,528M for the period. This is a record result for the Group, reflecting increases in average daily traffic across all regions. Proportional Net Cost

Proportional Net Cost was $649M. This was the result of increased tolling expenses following a 20% improvement in average daily traffic, full year costs from busines investments made in the prior year, opening of the M4-M8 link, full year ownership of WestConnex and inflation. However, performance was managed well against budget including a number of management. actions such as renegotiation of vendo contracts and active management of

STI non-financial measures

With the introduction of non-financial overall Group performance for STI purposes a balanced and robust approach was all stakeholders, underpinned by rigorous assessment mechanisms. Consistent with financial measures, Group performance was regularly monitored throughout the performance period.

Transurban has had a strong year in relation to HSE outcomes, including its lowest ever reportable injury rates. Performance relative to road safety targets was impacted by the increased risk associated with higher traffic volumes and changes in driver patterns and behaviour post-COVID-19. That said, analysis of independent data indicates perform significantly better than comparable road networks over the period. The Group's ongoing commitment to building a strong HSE and road safety culture is reflected in the increasing number of HSE observation reported and action plans completed by

Customer and Delivery

Focus has been on continuously improving the experience of our customers Attention has been in the areas of digital experience; loyalty offerings; and proactive support in relation to scam activity and for those experiencing hardship. Digital channel uptake rates have consistently increased Net Promoter Score (NPS) outcomes show sustained improvement, including reduced volatility.
